

National Alliance on Mental Illness

NAMI | Erie County

Educational Programs – Spring 2019

Family-to-Family is a free, twelve-week educational course for family members and friends whose loved ones are facing the challenges of mental illness.

NAMI Basics is a free, six-week educational course for parents and caregivers of children and teens who are experiencing symptoms of mental illness or behavioral disorders or are already diagnosed.

Classes start the first week of March and are held at the NAMI of Erie County office:
1611 Peach Street, Suite 218

Registration is required.

Please call (814) 456-1773 or visit www.namierie.org/application to register today.

FREE TO THE PUBLIC!

(Limited seats available)

Over 2/19